See and sell your self-published photobooks this Autumn in London, Hamburg and Paris.

In Hamburg the Photo+Art Book Hamburg premieres at the House of Photography this weekend, providing a forum for well-known publishers and young artists to meet at self-publishing workshops and artist talks. An award for the best unpublished picture book is also available. "We wanted to create something new in Hamburg: an international marketplace for artistic publications," explained fair director Oliver Lähndorf.
