

PHOTO+ART BOOK HAMBURG '11

From 2nd to 4th of September 2011, 70 national and international exhibitors will attend the premiere of the Photo+Art Book Hamburg'11 at the House of Photography, Deichtorhallen Hamburg (Germany).

The Photo+Art Book Hamburg'11 will be focusing on the printed medium as an artistic platform. The creative fair is not only a forum for well-known publishing houses but also invites visitors to discover young talents and creative movements outside the mainstream. Artists, designers, illustrators, printers and many independent labels will attend the Photo+Art Book Hamburg'11. "We wanted to create something new in Hamburg: an international marketplace for artistic publications," explains fair director Oliver Lähndorf.

The fair also offers an extensive general program, consisting of workshops, book signings and a two-day symposium. "We are happy to announce that some of the most prestigious Dutch and Belgian photographers will attend the symposium," says Jaamin Seck, fair director of the Photo+Art Book Hamburg'11. An award for the best, unpublished picture book will be conferred additionally.
